Sound Off 729-4000 is a weekly broadcast your community on any subject. To schedule a broadcast please call 729-4000 weekdays and 729-4001 weekends. A word must not speak ill of others. Be brief. Be interesting. Otherwise we may edit you.

You can read positive obituaries about people and feel great

Hi, this is one of your appreciators. This may seem funny, but I want to say that it's really good to read the obituaries and see the people in our community that have been here their whole lives and have moved up and helped the people around them.

The obituaries aren't depressing. It may hurt to lose a loved one, but you have to think about everything they've given. It's great when you can look back — even people who don't even know anybody can look back — and read the section and feel great.

Thank you for putting positive obituaries in.

Caller responds to Westland proposals to prevent flooding

If you don't want your property to flood in Westland, don't put up a garage, any landscaping, or any flowers. The place to be: Westland.

Questions about storm sewer hookups, problems in Westland

Why is it that when the city comes out and hydro-jets your system valves, your kitchen shakes and your toilets backflush in the city of Westland? And did they try and go and connect you 108 feet behind your house your storm sewer is only 22 to 28 feet from your house?

You're making too much of Ben E. Jet, a quite ordinary person

I just want to express an opinion. I cannot see the point in trying to make Ben E. Jet more than he is. He's just a regular ordinary person, but you can't pick up the paper without the "Sound Off" column saying, "Ben E. Jet to the front page! Our hero, our hero."

You're making him out more than he is and it's annoying and it makes me not want to read your paper anymore.

Wayne County Airport Noise Czarina Colleen Pobur listens as an angry Romulus resident Todd Kaiser complains about delays in home soundproofing and property purchasing programs. Anti noise effort growing, many still disappointed

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

While most Romulus city officials seemed pleased with speeded up Wayne County efforts to sound proof local homes or to purchase them from local owners, those property owners outside the so-called "footprint" complained they were being impacted by airport noise and not being compensated for those living-style woes.

The "footprint" is a computerized design that shows which homes, businesses and school facilities are eligible for financial relief from airport noise problems—via soundproofing, acquisitions by the county or purchase assurance (where the county makes up the loss difference in sales' price instances when properties are sold.)

Colleen Pobur, the airport's noise czarina, attempted to dispel most of the frustration the overflow crowd displayed by stating that many of the changes in the anti-noise effort have been created by listening to Romulus residents at the earlier meeting (three months before).

"We not only listened to you, but we have responded to your recommendations," Pobur of Plymouth said.

She explained that sound insulating of homes in Romulus will be a priority this year and expects that 100 such homes will be completed this year, a rate much higher than in the past.

Pobur said it used to take weeks at a time and multiple visits by county agents to effect a sound-proofing effort. Now we can design and insulate 25-35 homes a month.

She also proudly said that Wayne County has eliminated a provision which required residents to own their property before 1992 to qualify for such program benefits.

That policy provision was a sorepoint with many homeowners, she said, and we are happy we were able to change it.

Pobur and her aides have been passing out a "Homeowner's Handbook" for the airport neighborhood compatibility program to effected property owners. Upon urging that night, she also sent a number of the handbooks to City Clerk Linda Choate for distribution to city council members and for placement in the Romulus Public Library for general use.

While most council members thanked Pobur for the speeded up county action, Councilman Donald Morris said he hoped that the effort doesn't end or get seriously slowed down after the August Democratic Primary.

Incumbent Wayne County Executive Ed McNamara is being challenged on that ballot by area attorney Sharon McPhail.

Councilman Michael Prybyla also expressed deep reservations on the plan, since many living outside the "footprint" also need to be serviced by the county since they are being seriously impacted by the noise issue also.

'Walk for a cure' is planned

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

More than 100 Romulus residents have already responded to a call to take part in a two-mile walk in search of a cure for a little known disease impacting a 10-year-old Barth Elementary School student on May 30.

The name of the disease is so hard to pronounce or remember (ataxia telangiectasia) that it is publicly known simply as "A-T."

But the disease has such a devastating impact — it can greatly handicap a youth in his/her teens and even kill its victims by the age of 20. Thus major efforts are being made nationally to find a cure as soon as possible.

Young Bradley Bills, an honor roll fourth grader at Barth School, was diagnosed with A-T two years ago, his mother Denise Bills revealed recently.

Brad is showing some effects from the disease already, his mother revealed recently.

Thus students and school officials at both Barth and Wick Elementary Schools are teaming up to help make the May 30 "Walk for a Cure for A-T" a major success in Romulus.

Mayor William Oakley, Police Chief Charles Kirby and Fire Chief David Allison have joined the team and will assist in the safety of the walk effort by providing police escorts and a public safety vehicle for Brad to personally ride in that morning.

Walkers and other donors are being asked to donate $15 toward the A-T foundation cure effort that will begin and end at Wick School at 36900 Wick road (adjacent to Romulus Middle School) that last Saturday in May.

Registration for the walk will take place at 9 a.m. and the walk itself will begin at 10 a.m. Participants in the walk will be given A-T style special t-shirts and a free lunch following the walk.

Dennis Swaney, owner and operator of the Romulus IGA food market on Goddard road, is picking up the entire cost of the luncheon on the behalf of the Bills family, who he describes as his "long and faithful customers."

The A-T Children's Project was created by a Florida couple several years ago when two of the three children in the family were diagnosed with A-T.

A two-page story on the Florida-based Brad Margus family's effort to create the organization that is battling for a cure was printed in Business Week magazine back in May 1995.

The story outlines how Margus — then a successful worldwide shrimp business owner — has changed his life-style to create the foundation that he hopes will save the lives of his sons, Quinn and Jarrett.

Margus has had to cut back severely his hours on the job, to press for the A-T cure currently being sought by some of America's top medical service teams.

Donated funds have helped identify the gene that creates the A-T disease that in turn destroys its victim's muscle control, immune system and often creates cancerous conditions.

Luckily to date, the Romulus patient, has not fallen victim to pneumonia that often weakens young A-T victims, his mother said last week.

Warmly supported by his family that also includes his dad, Bob, and sister, Nicole, young Brad enjoys using his new slow roller, various Hot Wheels and even a small grouping of Beanie Babies.

Those unable to join the May 30 walk — but who still wish to help find the cure for A-T — are urged to send young Brad their well wishes and a check for $15 or more made out to the "A-T Children's Project."

The checks and cards should be mailed to The Bills Family, 38630 Westvale, Romulus, MI 48174.

Gypsy moth plan raising some anger

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

With Romulus only days away from kicking off its aerial war against an infestation of 1998 gypsy moths, several residents of Middlebelt Park subdivision demanded the local moth war be expanded to other parts of the city.

The residents, Bernard Ballantyne and Dan Arce, said they felt their properties on Dodge and Burton streets would have been included in the aerial spray effort that is slated to begin in Romulus next week.

They claimed they were shocked to find that only the western side of Wayne road in Romulus would be covered with the planned anti-gypsy moth spray effort paid partially (about 50 percent) with federal funds.

Ballantyne appeared first at Monday night's council meeting, to complain that this year is the first time in 36 years, he is able to see completely through a large nearby wooded area.

That only has happened because of the moths munching on area tree leaves, etc, Ballantyne said.

This is the second year in a row that gypsy moths have devoured Romulus tree leaves and also hit pine trees.

Ballantyne urged Mayor William Oakley to consider adding a second anti-gypsy moth effort this spring — "please at least consider a ground spraying operation for other parts of the city not covered by next week's aerial spraying," Ballantyne pleaded.

Oakley said the city is now trying to work out a second spraying effort, not covered by the original federal funded program. He said the city would consider working with a private contractor in conducting a ground spraying operation similar to what Ballantyne asked for.

Arce complained he had talked to Oakley's assistant, Dave Cox, that afternoon and was not satisfied with Cox's comments hours before the council meeting.

Oakley put Cox in charge of the anti-gypsy moth effort months ago, when it was announced that the aerial spraying program would be conducted in May.

Arce was extremely critical of Cox's efforts, claiming "I doubt if he even got out of his vehicle to inspect our area in the past."

The frustrated homeowner, who said he has lived at the same Romulus location for the past 19 years, invited city officials to use his outdoor pool this June. "Come on down and try swimming in the pool filled with gypsy moth feces," he offered the council members Monday.

Arce joined Ballantyne in stating he hoped that the Oakley administration would organize alternate spraying efforts soon.

Checking with Cox on Tuesday morning, the mayor's assistant said the planned anti-moth spraying will take place next Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday — depending on weather and other issues.

The spraying will be over 1,763 acres within the city, Cox said.

He said he understands citizens frustrations, since Arce has "a beautiful piece of property and pool covered with moth crap. He even offered me the use of his pool if I would come back with my bathing suit."

Cox said he was anxious to devise an alternate plan for spraying and urged residents with moth concerns to call him at his office 942-7569.

"They need to tell their names, addresses and the degree of infestation," Cox said.

The aerial spraying effort is expected to kill up to 60 percent of the current gypsy moths in the sprayed area, Oakley said.

This fall Cox said citizens will be asked to join the city in a gypsy moth egg counting effort to help improve their efforts next year. That team effort is extremely important in curtailing the impact of gypsy moths in any given area, he said.

Pastor Brad Lewis leaving area

The Rev. Brad Lewis, one of the most active pastors in Romulus, will be leaving the city shortly after his last Sunday service at the Community United Methodist Church on June 21.

He will begin his new ministry at the Good Shepherd United Methodist Church in Roscommon on July 1.

Lewis started his Romulus area ministry in July 1994, succeeding the Rev. J.D. Landis, who now serves at the Metropolitan Church in Detroit.

Lewis and his wife, Debbie, who serves as the church's musician and choir director, were informed of their pastoral change last week by Methodist Superintendent the Rev. Dr. Brent McCumons.

McCumons and Roger Burcroff, chairperson of the local church's Pastor Parish Relations Committee, will be focusing their efforts on obtaining a new pastor for the Romulus church in coming weeks.

The church also will be seeking to hire a new musician/choir director in the coming weeks also.

Since his arrival in 1994, Lewis has been busy in the community working the the local school district on numerous levels, the School Compact project and the current Boys/Girls Club effort headed by local school teacher John Juriga.

Lewis also has served with the local Salvation Army Adult Rehabilitation Center's advisory council, the Mayor's Drug Task Force and helped create the first student lock-in drug and alcohol free New Years Eve party at the Romulus High School.

Lewis also helped create a Pastors' Association within the city and has been active with the annual Good Friday procession and service each year, the National Day of Prayer effort each May and the October Crop Walk effort combining with churches in the Belleville area.

Within the church, Lewis also has created a Saturday Night Alive service (a contemporary church service), a monthly religious service at the Special Tree facility, a Vision 2000 program, Promise Keepers, and two 50-Day Spiritual Adventures.

Pastor Brad Lewis

In recent months, Lewis also has served as the Western Wayne County coordinator for anti-casino ballot efforts. That anti-casino team needs to gather about 248,000 voter signatures by late next month to set up a new vote on Michigan casino gambling issues this November.

Margaret Kalder Spas of Canton has been selected as "Mother of the Year" for 1998 by Right to Life - Lifespan. She will be officially honored at a dinner on May 5th at the San Marino Club in Troy.

Spas is the mother of three grown daughters, Marie Van Tiffin, Diane Drouillard and Emilie M. Spas and five grandchildren.

Spas and her husband, Leonard, formerly lived in Livonia and moved to Canton in 1997. She has been active with the Right to Life-Lifespan effort since 1972.

She also serves as an Adjunct Assistant Professor at Madonna University.

Tickets costing $40 (or $350 for a table of 10) can be obtained by calling 248-777-9090.

Guest speaker for the dinner will be Dr. Bernard Nathanson, founder of a national abortion effort, who has now switched priorities and speaks on behalf of the unborn.

The First United Methodist Church of Belleville has started a major effort to upgrade and enlarge its parsonage at an estimated cost of $88,000. The campaign is being called "Buy a Board - Jump Aboard."

Earlier it was announced that the First U.M. Church's pastor, the Rev. David Strong - would be retiring in June. A new pastor - the Rev. John N. Grenfell III and his young family with four children - will succeed Strong.

A talent show, potluck dinner and ice cream social also is planned by the First U.M. Church on May 3. A Mother/Daughter Banquet also is slated in the church's fellowship hall at 6:30 p.m. May 8.

"Wanda the Fairy Godmother" will be entertaining at the banquet.

Romulus seniors plan sleepover

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Romulus senior citizens are planning a picnic and sleepover at the Romulus Senior Citizen Center on Bibbins street on Aug. 4, Senior Citizen Director Linda Norman said this week.

The seniors should arrive about 5 p.m. that day for the cookout, which will take place at the rear of the senior center, Norman said.

The event is being timed to coincide with the National Night Out program sponsored by police across the U.S.

"We will be seeking donations of cots, inflatable mattresses etc. for the night," Norman stressed.

Persons seeking more information should call Norman at 942-6852.

Norman also is seeking Romulus area senior citizens to sign up for the 1998 Senior Olympics programs that will take place this year in Allen Park.

The deadline for the signing up for the Aug. 3-7 activities will be June 30 at the Romulus

Senior Center.

To take part, seniors need to be at least 55 years of age, Norman said. This year swimming competitions have been added to the olympic events.

Each year more than a dozen Romulus senior citizens take part in the Senior Olympics that are held in various Downriver community senior centers on a rotating basis.

Approximately 30 senior citizens will take part in this year's Law Day Mock Trial at the 34th District Court in Romulus on May 12.

It probably will be staged in the court room of Chief Judge Tina Green and will include about 30 Romulus High School senior class members.

The script of the trial is being prepared by Romulus Community Officer Joseph Richardson and local attorney Brian Oakley.

Romulus Senior Center Director Linda Norman said the trial will include issues on domestic violence between a grandparent and grandchild.

Many of the students will be members of the school's government classes.

Sharon McPhail

Wayne County Executive candidate Sharon McPhail of Detroit will be a guest speaker at the Romulus Senior Citizen Center at 10 a.m. May 20.

McPhail will outline some of the issues she is campaigning on in an effort to defeat incumbent County Executive Ed McNamara.

McPhail then will accept questions from the audience.

Efforts are still being made to have McNamara meet with the seniors prior to the Democratic Primary in August.

Rose Fest slated May 8 and 9

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Area senior citizens are being invited to join in the fun at the Rose Fest 98 (Mothers' Day weekend) at the Brickscape Gardens, between Northville and Novi.

More than 1,500 rose plants involving 100 different varieties will be on display from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. May 9 and 10.

Pat Hibbard, president of Roses West Rose Society and several fellow society officers, will be on hand from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. May 9 to offer advice on raising the plants and chat with interested persons on roses.

New roses for this year will be featured on an enlarged display garden and will include various Jackson and Perkins roses such as:

•The Grand Finale -- J and P's rose of the year. It has elegant two-inch buds that spiral into full, high-centered ivory blooms of 4 1/2 inch exhibition form. This rose also offers thick pedals and sweet fragrance.

•Yellow Simplicity -- the newest of the J and P's hedge roses that bloom in large clusters repeatedly all season, offering bright yellow blooms.

•Fame! Is a winning flower in the Grandiflora Class. It is a deep pink rose that is recommended for border accents or massed plantings.

•Opening Night! An exciting hybrid tea rose with deep red single blooms.

The event was created because many mothers love roses, Brickscape Gardens owner Joe DiRado said.

The festival will be located on Brickscape drive, just north of Eight Mile road and east of Novi road. For more information call 810-348-2500.

Belleville High School to be in "Jeopardy"

By DON RICHTER
MCN Special Writer

Alex Trebek isn't nervous-yet.

However, Belleville High School may be offering the fun and challenging game show some local competition. Belleville's 1998 Jeopardy Tournament is offering over $3,000 in cash and prizes, which will be won by student contestants over the course of fifteen games. Sixty four Belleville High students will compete in the four week competition, which started April 21 and will continue until the championship match on Friday, May 15, under the direction of Social Studies teacher Kevin Kelly.

Local businesses have been donating prizes, ranging from gift certificates from McDonald's and Burger King, to $100 cash for each member of the winning team.

"We've always been known for our sports teams, as well as our incredible band program," Kelly said. "Now we can show off our intellects, as well."

Each of the fifteen games run from 1:15 to 2p.m. each day, and teachers are invited to sponsor a team of four from their sixth hour class. The remaining students from the sixth hour classes are welcome to watch the game live and the winning team's classmates will receive $30 Domino's Pizza gift certificates. BHS teachers will be writing the questions and judging answers.

The games are videotaped and broadcast daily at 6p.m. the next two weeks on Channel 40, the Van Buren Township cable station. "We hope many parents and community members will see their kids compete on television," said Kelly. "They'll be excited to see how intelligent their kids really are."

But, would it cause fear and trembling in Burbank, CA.? Only Mr. Trebek knows for sure. And presently he's not available for comment.

School board approves new music addition

By DON RICHTER
MCN Special Writer

At last Monday's Van Buren school board meeting, there was a little bit of everything. A swimmer was honored, a new dump truck was approved and a bid proposal was passed to be sent out to local builders for the much anticipated and long awaited Belleville High School music addition.

Shane Cox, a junior swimmer at Belleville High School was recognized for his remarkable achievements this season. "Shane is just such a great kid," said coach George Devore. "He has a super work ethic. This season he broke a school swim record which has stood for eight years. Being just a junior this year, he could possibly be a state champion next season."

Cox qualified in the 50 and 100 meter freestyle at this year's state meet.

The purchasing of a new dump truck was unanimously passed. This truck will replace one that is almost 20 years old. "It's in the budget and I would recommend that we buy the truck," said board member David Peer.

Member Martha Toth wanted to know if, "this truck can be fitted with a snowplow blade?"

The owner of the truck said that, "yes, it could be fitted with a blade. That wouldn't be a problem."

Finally, the BHS music addition proposal was passed unanimously, as well.

This means that the dispersal of bid documents to local builders can proceed if the music addition is approved by voters in next month's election.

"I'd like to thank the band boosters and Jim Van Tassle(BHS band leader) for all their efforts in helping to bring this about," said superintendent James Richendollar.

Politics, chamber should not mix

"Awesome" is the only word I can think of to describe the Mayor Thomas political machine. His administration came up with another major win a couple of week's ago when the Westland mayor was able to unseat the Westland Chamber of Commerce President-Elect Kim Shunkwiler.

I say this facetiously, because it is my humble opinion that politics, particularly those played by Mayor Thomas, do not belong in the Chamber, which last I knew, was an independent organization existing solely for the benefit of it's members-businesses who may or may not agree politically with the Mayor.

Others do not share that opinion, thus when it came time for Chiropractor Shunkwiler to take over the reins of president, the Board chose someone else. Immediately when this action was taken, the Mayor and City Hall, which had cut ties with the Chamber over several disputes, came back to the fold, all smiles proclaiming a new spirit of cooperation.

The Chamber-Mayor rift had a lot to do with Chamber President John Toye and Shunkwiler supporting Thomas's opponent Ken Mehl in the 1997 election. Thomas eventually won the election by a landslide, but didn't forget his political enemies. At first opportunity, he publicly humiliated Shunkwiler by engineering a coup to pass him over.

Let this be a lesson for others that take exception to the Westland Mayor. Thomas is unyielding in his ability to wield the political stick. Get in his way and your days in Westland may be numbered. Just ask Kim Shunkwiler, who with Toye, resigned from the Chamber Board, upset that their year's of voluntary work for the Chamber weighed nothing compared to the political clout of Thomas.

And the Chamber Board...shame on you! Shunkwiler would have made an excellent president. As a collective group you should have been able to appease City Hall and keep Shunkwiler. I will agree that it makes sense for both groups to work in unison in an effort to attract and keep business in Westland. That Chamber needs City Hall, and City Hall needs the Chamber. However, both are independent of one another. The chamber's agenda is narrow in scope, whereas City Hall has many considerations they must deal with before a decision is rendered. Disputes are inevitable and compromise should be the letter of the law. Somehow, compromise was lost when it came time for Shunkwiler to take office.

Hopefully, for the Chamber's sake, this controversy will pass. A week ago an anonymous source claimed many others would follow Toye and Shunkwiler's lead, thus resigning from the Chamber. To our knowledge that has not happened. That is good. The last thing the Chamber needs at this point is a mass exodus of members.

Likewise, the first thing Chamber members could do to lessen the Mayor's clout is to get involved. As in most organizations, a select few do most of the work in the Chamber. If you don't like what's happening, rather than gripe, get involved. Then you too, can be involved in the decision-making process.

In conclusion, politics and chamber activities should not mix. We hope the Mayor and City Hall will recognize this and in the future keep their Chamber involvement to providing expertise and manpower, versus tossing out business people who fail to support the political state in office.

Mike's musings

School boards are governments, not corporations on the make

Growing up in the fifties, we used to make fun of the old World War II vets and their long-winded war stories.

Perhaps we should have listened because history repeats itself and we're prepared for the Vietnam War.

Naively we elected the peace candidate, Lyndon Johnson, who tricked us into sacrificing part of a generation to his ego, and in the process transformed a nation of well-educated middle class families, neighborhoods, and communities that used to make things into a nation of absent parents and latchkey kids with an economy made up of mostly nonproductive government and service jobs.

At the risk of sounding as long-winded as my parents generation sounded to me, I'd like to point out one of the lessons of the Vietnam War that could save the Plymouth-Canton school board from a lesser disaster.

The lesson is to quit running a government body like a corporation.

That was the mistake that ole' LBJ made by allowing the defense department to be run like Ford Motor Company.

Not only did LBJ buy into Robert McNamara and his slick corporate tricks, he ignored Speaker House of the House Sam Rayburn's warnings about the Ford whiz kid.

According to David Halberstam's The Best and the Brightest, Johnson told Rayburn how McNamara, "the fellow with the Starcomb [a 10W40-weight hair tonic] on his hair from Ford" was "the smartest of them all."

Acknowledging that McNamara and his ilk were smart, Rayburn said, "They may be every bit as intelligent as you say, but I'd feel a whole lot better if just one of them had run for sheriff just once."

They hadn't; thus they had no practical experience or public accountability. So instead of considering the well being of the nation, McNamara reverted to corporate behavior in all matters, including drafting and sacrificing young American boys in combat.

Instead of honestly reporting on the strength of the enemy and telling the nation what it would take to wage the war, McNamara employed Ford-style managed decision-making.

According to Townsend Hoopes, Undersecretary of the Air Force (1967-1969) and one of the small group of men in government who dared to challenge McNamara's war policy, McNamara managed decisions "by holding control within very narrow channels, developing an advance position, and moving fast, [thereby finessing] serious debate on basic issues."

Sound familiar? This is exactly how the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education, which contains a Ford suit or two, makes their decisions.

For example, the board recently vowed to give up begging for more money, to survey the community for best ideas in education and to adopt them.

Yet when citizen Ted Bohlen took up the challenge, he was ignored. He made the mistake of presenting ideas outside of the narrow channel. His sin was suggesting some ideas successfully used in area private schools.

Within a few months, the board was back to begging for money so shamelessly that most area Republicans refused to show up at the district's begfest at the Summit.

I bring this up because this June residents will have a chance to elect three new board members. Voters should be aware that the present board fancies itself a corporation, the adult community as customers, and the students as state funding tokens, much as McNamara considered the military a corporation, the voters as gullible consumers, and the soldiers as cannon fodder.

Voters should be aware that government is of the people, by the people, and for the people. The district won't get back on track until voters learn this historical cliché.

Thanks a Million

WEEKLY SYNDICATED COLUMN BY PERCY ROSS

Millionaire Percy Ross is known for his philanthropic work. He offers help and encouragement for those in need. He has earned a fortune and a wealth of knowledge during his lifetime and wants to share both. His motto: "He who gives while he lives... also knows where it goes."

Finally Able To Travel The Straight And Narrow

Dear Mr. Ross: Today is the most important day of my life because I'm going to quit being a victim. I am no longer a punching bag for my ex-husband. I am no longer an empty vacuum that my stepfather can sexually abuse. I am no longer going to drown my sorrow in alcohol to the point of numbness and intoxication. After extensive psychological testing and counseling, I have been prescribed an anti-depressant, Prozac. The effect has been tremendous, but the cost is staggering because I have no medical insurance, yet.

Two weeks ago I got a job, thanks to a transitional program I underwent for skills and job placement. I don't qualify for insurance though until I've been here for 3 months. I'm determined to make a clean start. My apartment only has an old chair and table-no bed, TV or other comforts, but in time I'll change this. Right now what I need most is my medication. If you could help me with a 3 month supply, together we can say I made it back from a living hell.

Ms. P. A. ... The Times, Westlake, OH

Dear Ms. A.: Not only did you make it back, but I venture to say you won't be taking any detours or side trips in heading to your new destination. The determination you've displayed is reason alone for me to make an investment in your future. Let me know which Rite Aid store is most convenient in your area and I'll make arrangements so you can receive Prozac until your insurance kicks in. And as they say in Alcoholics Anonymous, "Welcome back to sanity and sobriety!"

Dear Mr. Percy: I'm a working mom who's a waitress and a darn good one. I believe in giving good service with a big smile. My problem is I'm afraid to smile for fear my 3 front teeth will fall out. My dentures broke over a year ago. I've been using super glue to hold them in place. It works for about 2 weeks, then I have to reglue them. My dentist claims they can't be fixed and that I'll need a new upper plate made. Between rent, food and clothes for my son and I, I just don't have the extra money. The cost is $279. I don't receive any kind of subsidy, because as long as I can work, I'm going to support myself. One last thing. I've had people say that using super glue could make me sick. What then? Toothless ... The Gleaner, Henderson, KY

Dear Toothless: I wonder if the manufacturer of super glue knows of all the uses the product was never intended for. It reminds me of the story about the wife's husband who was having an affair. While he was asleep one evening she got her revenge by super gluing his penis to his abdomen. The end result was surgery, then divorce.

This has absolutely nothing to do with your upper plate, except to say $280 cold cash is on the way. I don't know how your blue plate special was in the past, but at least now you can suggest it with confidence.

Dear Mr. Ross: I'm a single mother of 7: 5 boys and 2 girls, ages 14, 13, 12, 8, 5, 3 and 5 months. My problem is not my children, it's transportation! A year ago I was on welfare. Now I have a job. I work at a nursing home making $7 an hour as a certified nursing assistant. I get up at 4 a.m. every morning. I leave my apartment at 5 a.m., so that I can push my 5 month old baby in the stroller to the babysitter and still get to work by 7 a.m. I'm asking for $1,200 so I can buy a used mini van. If not, I'll keep on pushing on until I have something to drive.

Ms. L. W. ... The Post, West Palm Beach, FL

Dear Ms. W.: Seven children and not even a mention of a father anywhere in your letter. How did you find yourself in this situation? I agree that transportation would ease your burden, but $1,200 for a mini van would be a poor investment on my part. Even if you got lucky with one that runs well, there is insurance, gas, oil, tabs and minor repairs. In other words, I'd just be giving you a $1,200 headache. Sorry, but your request has been given a thumb's down.

'Sound Off' comments were rude, State of City was appropriate

To the Editor:

In your edition of Thursday, April 23, someone called in to your sound-off program and made statement towards Our Honorable Mayor Robert J. Thomas, regarding the State of the City Address, held Wednesday, April 8th at the Hellenic Cultural Center.

I am not calling in on "Sound Off" but writing my response to the unjustified comments made, with the hopes that this will be published.

First, I was very proud that our Honorable Mayor Robert J. Thomas chose my idea to walk to the podium with the directors of each department following. This was done, I believe, with dignity, class, and professionalism. (By the way, there was no white carpeting, and there was no band, both would have been inappropriate.) This arrangement was used when the Honorable Governor John M. Engler signed The Workers Utility Bill at the Westland Friendship Center.

This arrangement of dignitaries signifies unity and support, which is a necessity in Corporate, City and State Government.

As an employee of this city (now going on 27 1/2 years), after reading this particular "Sound Off" column, I felt compelled to notify you and the readers of the Eyewitness that the Mayor respectfully honored an idea presented to him, and the unjustified comments made toward our Mayor were unnecessary and rude.

If anyone felt it was not appropriate, do not fault the Mayor. I take full responsibility. I have been planning functions for years. As a matter of fact, Honorable Senator Loren Bennett requested that Westland host the signing of

The Workers Utility Bill and the Governors visit, partially because of the expertise gained from years of experience in hosting special events. I have attended many State and Federal Government Functions and countless surrounding area city functions. Believe me, this State of City Address and the important presentations made, were conducted in a dignified and professional manner. I have spent many years supporting this city, and would never suggest or do anything which I felt would cause embarrassment to the Mayor or the taxpayers of the city I love.

Lady praised for not suing restaurant

To the Editor:

It is good to read of the lady who had decided not to sue The Ritz Carlton-Dearborn restaurant because of discomforts suffered from food served by employees. So many today attempt fame by suing somebody, anybody, so that they can live everafter on the largesse of others. Call Sam, Beany, Slyfox, or some other ambulance chaser who promises to get you your money.

Slip and fall, blame somebody, look for deep pockets, and steal the money from those who have worked hard to accumulate a few dollars. The march toward Balkanization or leveling of society continues. The liberal mentality works constantly to find ways to equalize, to redistribute, to socialize the poor, the down-trodden masses of lunch-bucket Joes. An elementary student was bopped at school recently and now the parents want ten million dollars. Let's keep things honest; flip those burgers.

Wish more people would protest 'Jerry Springer Show'

To the Editor:

I'm a grandmother and I've seen many appalling, happenings, but this Jerry Springer TV show is the most stupid, violent idea the producers have ever had. Was not our Capital concerned with the horrific stuff on TV. Did they not ask the TV powers to modulate the destructive shows because of the traumatic effect they may have upon impressionable youth.

Ignoring all good sense, they have increased the violence brought into our homes. Henry Maldonado has okayed this.

To say don't watch it is moronic. To move it to 4:00 was deplorable. Kids are home and most parents are not. So the ratings are high. This only shows the depth to which we have sunk when money is more important than our children. How can we justify this when more children are murdering every day. Freedom of owning guns is partially the reason, but the depicting of rage and violence is worse. People in the audience are cheering them on. I never thought to see this horror.

I commend Ms. Cynthia Johnson, who led a protest against this outrage at the TV Studio. I am saddened, too, that more people are not objecting as I have. Ministers should write, teachers, too, and State reps. Don't they have kids watching this monstrosity? Write the sponsors, write Washington, write the Newspaper. As a wise man once said, "Evil flourishes when good men do nothing."

Vote for education savings accounts applauded

To the editor:

A group advocating a tuition tax credit for parents of Michigan's elementary and secondary school-age children Friday applauded Sen. Spencer Abraham, R-Mi., for his vote in favor of federal legislation to help working and poor parents meet school expenses and, if necessary, choose alternatives to dangerous or substandard public schools.

Thursday, the Education Savings Accounts legislation was approved by the U.S. Senate on a vote of 56 to 43.

"We thank Senator Abraham for voting to put the interests of Michigan's children first, and for offering much-needed tax relief to parents who wisely and responsibly make their children's education, whether public or nonpublic, a high priority in their family budgets," said Gary Glenn, president of School Choice YES! of Midland.

Glenn said the federal legislation, if enacted, will allow lower-income families the same choices wealthy families have now.

"Wealthy families can already afford to cover their children's education expenses now, and choose the best and safest schools for their children, no matter what the cost, no matter what the tax implications," Glenn said. "If Senator Abraham's position prevails, more Michigan families who are not so well off will be able to make those choices."

Glenn said his group's proposed tuition tax credit would also financially empower low- and middle-income families to make better education choices for their children.

A recent public opinion poll revealed that most Michiganders want School Choices other than the public school to which their children are geographically assigned, he said.

Sixty-one percent (61%) of respondents agreed--46% strongly, and 15% somewhat--with the statement: "If I had a choice, and cost wasn't an issue, I would send my kids to private school." (Only 35% disagreed.) In Detroit, 76% agreed with the statement, and 18% disagreed.

Wayne 20, Romulus 13: No, it wasn't football

Wayne sweeps twin bill

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

On a clear and sunlit Saturday morning, high school baseball records fell.

In the first game of a doubleheader between visiting Romulus and Wayne Memorial, the two Mega Conference opponents scored a total of 33 runs.

The final? Wayne 20 - Romulus 13!

And no two local high school baseball teams in recent history have put that many runs on a scoreboard in any single game during the past three decades.

"We beat them by a TD and point-after," chuckled Wayne Memorial's veteran baseball coach Jim Chronowski afterward. "I don't think we scored that many runs all of last year. Did we?"

The outcome also surprised Romulus' Don Foley.

"I figured we'd see a pitcher's duel. Boy, we're wrong," said Foley.

In an abbreviated second-game, called after five innings because of a mercy rule, Ryan Czyzak fired a two-hitter as Wayne blanked Romulus 10-0 for the sweep.

After exchanging three runs in the first inning of the opening game, Romulus took a 5-3 lead in the second, upped their lead to 6-3 in its third, before Wayne bats exploded for eight runs in the bottom of the fourth.

The eight runs lifted Wayne to a 11-10 lead.

Four more runs in each of the fifth and sixth innings put the Zebras head for good.

Five Romulus batters collected two hits each: Dennis Forystek drilled a pair of singles and had an RBI, while teammate Jeremy Stevens scored three times after getting board twice on a pair of singles. Derek Plave laced a double, single and three RBIs while Steve Justice and Matt Martin each checked in with a pair of hits.

Wayne's Charlie Leverenz had an outstanding series against the Eagles. For the day, Leverenz went 5 for 7 with a pair of homers, two doubles and a single. The Wayne slugger also accounted for nine RBIs and scored six times.

"We also intentionally walked him," Foley said.

Eagles bury HP, 23-5

By TOM MOORADIAN

You probably won't get any argument from Highland Park about Romulus being in the wrong division of the Mega Conference this season.

A former Mega Red affiliate, which stepped down into the Gold Division, Romulus ripped the Parkers 25-5 in their first-ever Gold Division baseball encounter last week, setting all kinds of records en route to its second divisional victory.

The Eagles scored more runs in one game than they did all of last year in the Red Division, and also put a record-shattering 10 runs on the scoreboard in the first inning in the abbreviated five-inning game.

The game was called after five innings because of a Michigan High School Athletic Association rule that allows an umpire to terminate if one

Defense boosts Rockets

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Two crucial victories last week returned Westland John Glenn to the Western Lakes Conference baseball title chase.

Whether coach Todd Duffield and the Rockets stay in the hunt will depend on the outcome of tomorrow's showdown with North Farmington, the pre-season Western Lakes Conference title favorite.

North Farmington is undefeated in the Lakes Division and Glenn, with one loss, is a step behind the leader, however, the Westlanders can't afford to allow the gap to widen.

"We have a couple of tough games ahead of us, and the outcome of those games will tell us a lot," said Duffield, who had to contend with title-hopeful Northville yesterday. "NF has the pitching and they can be tough."

"But our kids have been hitting the ball solidly, and the defense has come around, so I feel that this should be a good test for us."

Glenn hammered 12 hits to turn back Lakes Division opponent, Farmington, 13-7, and jolted Walled Lake Western 8-4 after disposing of a strong Plymouth-Salem squad 9-2 earlier last week to card three conference victories in one week.

But Glenn split with Garden City in their Saturday doubleheader.

Glenn fell 6-3 then salvaged the series with a 11-7 victory as their overall record dipped to 6-6 last week.

Junior right-hander Mike Swafford scattered eight Farmington hits, fanned two and walked four to chalk up the victory. He received ample hitting support from his teammates who tagged losing pitcher Matt McGrail for 12 hits.

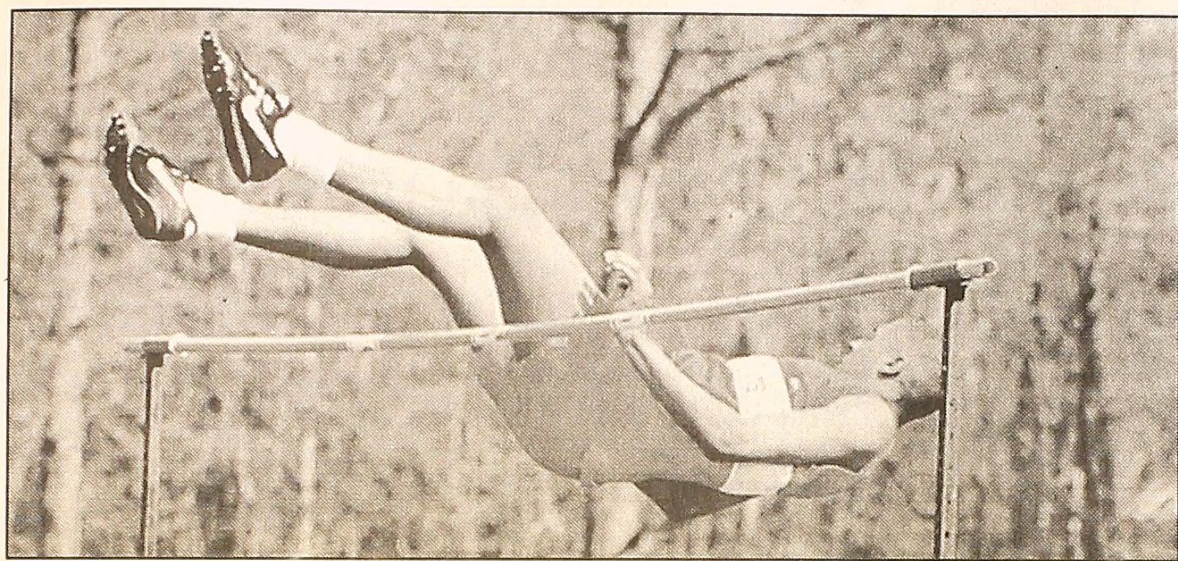

Swafford helped his own cause by swatting three of the 12 hits, one going for a run-scoring double. Nick Hudson kept his hitting streak alive with a pair of doubles which led to four runs batted in. Tim Reeves, Chet Rees and Justin Fendeleit each accounted for two hits.

Glenn struck early against Western as the Westlanders scored three runs in the first inning off of losing pitcher Rob Pisha, who left the game in the fifth. The Rockets collected a total of 10 hits with Reeves, Rees, Hudson and Hayes each latching on to two. Hudson also had two RBIs and Hayes included a double in his two safeties.

Dale Hayes went the distance, struck out five and walked three to pick up his first victory of the season. Rob Pisha digested the loss.

Hudson blasted his first HR of the season as Glenn cooled Plymouth-Salem 9-2 in their

In the meantime, Wayne's Steve Barber (in photo at right) provided the Zebras with a first place in the shot put but Barber's individual efforts were not enough to stop the Zebras' natural opponents, Glenn, which posted a 80-57 non-conference victory. Champs in need of help

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

With one of their premier sprinters on the injury list, defending champ Westland John Glenn ran into trouble at the Dick Waters Monroe Relays on Saturday.

"We showed much improvement at the relays, and it definitely was a great team effort," said Glenn coach Jess Shough, "but we just didn't have the depth or the talent this year to defend our title."

The Rockets have been without the services of Harden James, a standout during the last two conference campaigns.

The Westlanders garnered 39 points and wound up in the middle of the pack at Monroe. The Rockets' 39 points gave them a sixth-place finish in a field of 11 teams.

Toledo Whitmer finished atop of the standings. The newly-crowned champs had 116 1/2 points. Monroe, the host, was runnerup (79), followed by Temperance Bedford (78), Romulus (58), Ann Arbor Pioneer (49), Taylor Truman (34), Robichaud (29 1/2), Edsel Ford (26 1/2), Ypsilanti (15 1/2) and Taylor Kennedy (2).

The Rockets were shut out from the golds, but managed to produce two silver medalists. In the long jump, Devin White and Tim Moore gave Glenn a second and third. White leaped 19 feet, 1 inch and finished behind Romulus' Melvin Hicks (See Related Story). Moore's 18 feet, 10 was the third-best jump.

Moore (6-2) and White (5-10) also finished second and third, respectively, in the high jump competition with Hicks again claiming the gold.

Kurt Boardman placed fifth in the discus with a toss of 125 feet. In a very fast field for the 100-meters, Rob Fant managed to finish fifth. He posted a 11.17 in the semis but was a fraction slower in the finals where the Rocket sprinter was clocked in 11.46.

Russell is off and running

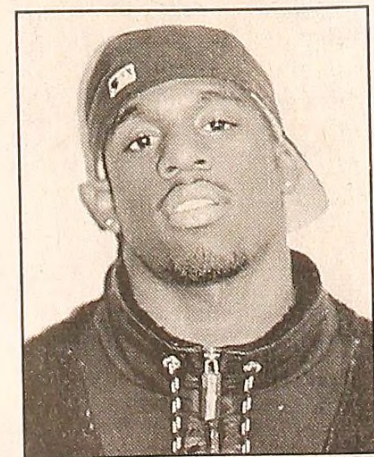

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

As a running back, Freddie Russell burned up the gridiron last fall.

In track, the 17-year-old Romulus junior also is proving that he has speed to burn.

Russell picked up a gold medal in the 100-meter dash at the prestigious Dick Waters Monroe Invitational and also finished third in the 200, covering the distance in 22.8 to help the Eagles finish third at the invitational.

"Freddie is an outstanding athlete with a lot of talent," said Romulus track coach Norb Glover. "He is definitely a big asset to this team."

Freddie Russell

Team-wise, Romulus finished behind invitational winner Toledo Whitmer, Monroe and Temperance Bedford. There were 11 teams at this year's invitational.

Romulus also received a superb effort from All-Area hoop star Melvin Hicks, who returned home with a pair of golds from Monroe. Hicks, a senior, successfully negotiated 6 feet, 4 to place first in the high jump. He then leaped 19 feet, 11 1/2 inches to top the field in the long jump competition.

Glover put together a 2-mile relay lineup that con-

Salem slugger injured as Plymouth-Canton sweeps doubleheader

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

You can start passing the Roloids to Plymouth-Salem baseball coach Dale Rumberger.

Not only did Rumberger and the Rocks lose both ends of a doubleheader to arch foes Canton, but a wild pitch caught Salem slugger Ben Szczepanski in the wrist and apparently shattered a couple of bones.

Szczepanski, who has been wielding the hottest bat in the conference and was batting a .430, will probably be out for four weeks, if not more.

To add hurt to the injury, the umpire refused to acknowledge that the pitch hit the senior Salem first baseman and called him back to the plate after Ben began to trot down to the base.

"There's nothing you can do about that," said Rumberger about the play. "Sure I had my say with the ump, but he has the final word."

Canton rallied for four runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to edge the Rocks 4-3 and steal the victory out of Jason Lukasik's mitt. Lukasik worked 6 2/3 innings and was charged with all four runs. He struck out six and walked two before Rumberger removed the right-handed sophomore for Scott Hay.

The Rocks struck for a run in the first inning and added two more in the second frame before winning pitcher Mike Rouke settled down and gathered goose eggs the rest of the game.

Salem collected eight hits off of Rouke who gave up a run-scoring single to Mark Runchey in the second that opened the gates to the two-run inning. In that inning, Mike Hoben got aboard on an error, moved to third when Runchey singled and scored when Jamie LaGrow's slow roller was missed played. Tony Bernhardt's sacrifice fly drove in the Rocks' final run.

Canton's southpaw Jeff Page fired a two-hitter at the Rocks and earned a 2-0 shutout in the nightcap. Page whiffed five and walked one in the victory.

Before their demise at the hands of Canton, Salem managed to turn back Livonia Stevenson 11-7 as Kurt Berlin picked up his second win of the campaign.

Salem pounded out 13 hits as Szczepanski hammered two hits, including a run-scoring double, and teammates Mike Hoben and LaGrow each collected two hits in the slugfest.

Brett Burleson drilled his first homer of the season and had two other hits in a 4 RBI afternoon. His circuit clout came in the third inning.

Before heading for Sturgis to defend its tournament title on Saturday, Salem will be at home tomorrow to take on Walled Lake Central in a Western Lakes game.

Westland captures softball tourney

It was an excellent way to launch the softball season.

Westland's Jimmies/Easton won four straight at the Liberty Park Invitational Softball Tournament and went on to capture the tournament title.

Jimmies stopped the best that teams from Novi, Sterling Heights and Detroit had in throw against them to win the season's opening tournament. The perennial United States Softball Association's powerhouse will seek its next tournament title at a tournament in Harrison, Ohio scheduled for May 2.

With Johnnie Simpson, one of the newest members of the Jimmie's crew, stroking four hits and five runs batted in, and teammate Scott Hillie also cashing in for four hits for four at-bats, Jimmies buried Webworks out of Flint 28-7 in the season's opener.

Scott Jansen, Belleville's contribution to the Jimmie's lineup, chipping in three hits in four appearances at the plate and Tom Lange also lacing three hits, Jimmie's "merced" the Flint club.

Lange hammered a pinch-hit grand slam homer to lift Jimmies to a 22-10 victory over

The perennial United States Softball Association's powerhouse will seek its next tournament title at a tournament in Harrison, Ohio ...

Novi's Prestige/Calvert in a duel also called after five innings because of the "mercy rule". Mark Matchalet batted a perfect 3-for-3 for the winners.

First baseman Jason Riggi collected five hits in five at-bats to pace Jimmie's to as 23-13 victory over Oakland Plumbers, a team representing the city of Sterling Heights. Lengyl picked up four hits and a pair of RBIs and Jason Simpson, Matchalet and Scott Nastally each had perfect 4-for-4 days at the plate.

Simpson, Scott Hille, Ruben Gonzak, and Brian Donehue accounted for 10 of Jimmie's runs in a lopsided victory over R & K Tools.

Jimmies/Easton will also be the host for the annual Patrolman Len Anderson Memorial Invitational which will be staged sometime this summer.

Glenn's Josh Keyes was sixth (42.33). Brothers Josh and Justin Keyes accounted for three of Westland John Glenn's nine first places in Glenn's 80-57 victory over natural rival, Wayne Memorial, in an out-of-conference dual track meet last week. Josh dominated the hurdles' competition as he cleared the 110-meter obstacles in 17.2. He picked up his second big victory with a 45.19 effort in the 300-meter hurdles. Justin led the 800-meter pack to the wire. The events' best time was posted as 2:12. Wayne had two winners in the field events - Steve Barber had a put of 43 feet, 7 1/2 inches, while teammate Mario Long vaulted 9-feet for their individual victories. But the Rockets countered with victories from Kurt Boardman, who had a toss of 124 feet, 11; Will Bozer's leap of 18 feet, 3 1/2 in the long jump; and Devin White's 5 feet, 8 performance in the high jump in the other field events.

Glenn's 3,200-meter relay team made up of Justin Keyes, Kevin Durigon, P. J. Woloco and Kevin Derwich stashed the event in the Rockets' column thanks to a 9:01 performance, and its 400-relay team of Dan Smitherman, Will Bozer, DeJuan Kelly and Dan Pullam was clocked in the winning time of 47.4. Wayne had the best 800 and 1,600-meter relay teams in the field. Wayne also captured the 100 and 200 meter dashes as Terry Thomas posted a 11.4 in the 100, then came back for a 24.6

to take the 200. Wayne's Andy Prieskorn toured the 3200-meter run in 10.41 to give the Zebras that event. Despite outstanding performances from their athletes in the field events, Glenn dropped a 86-51 decision to Livonia Stevenson, and the loss was the Rockets' first setback in the Lakes Division in two years. "Stevenson has a very balanced team and came to run," noted Glenn coach Jess Shough.

first encounter of the season. Hudson's blast was a solo in the sixth off of losing pitcher Kurt Berlin. Berlin gave up a total of 11 hits to the Rockets with Hayes and Gordie Smith each collecting two. Glenn's Brian Alt pitched three scoreless innings before Garden City rallied for two runs to take a 2-1 lead en route to 6-3 victory over the Westlanders. Glenn scored two in the last of the seventh, but Dave Yarbough then buckled down and got the last two outs. Reeves had a perfect 3-for-3, including a triple off of the GC pitcher and teammates Fendele, Rees and Hudson each got two as the Rockets outthit their opponents 10-5. Rees went the distance and gave up seven hits while striking out an equal number of GC batters. The Rockets staked their pitcher to three runs in the first inning and added four more in the third and scored what proved to be the decisive runs in the fourth. Rees also helped his cause with a pair of doubles. Reeves, Swafford and Utley also had two hits each.

"That's what we should have done every time he was up there. He's one heck of a ball player." Incidentally, Leverenz's HR in the first game goes down in the books as the first round-tripper hammered at Wayne's newly-enclosed ball field. Czyzak, a 240-pound backstop, turned pitcher for the second game. He picked up his first varsity victory as he two-hit the Eagles. He also notched three strikeouts and walked five. Wayne received three hits from Teasdale, who also had a double, two RBIs and scored once. Matt Mackiewicz also stood out at the plate. He laced four singles, scored four times and drove in two runs in the slugfest. Townsend cashed in on a single and a double for three drives batted in. He also scored three times. Jeremy Overton finished with three singles and three RBIs, while Gary Stevens had a pair of singles for the winners. In the second game, Czyzak lost his bid for a rare no-hitter when he served up a single to Nate Thomas in the second inning. The Wayne hurler also was tagged by Justice for the second hit. Wayne begins the week with a 4-6 overall record. Chronowski's ball club is 1-1 in the White Division after losing to Allen Park 5-3, but beating Ypsilanti in a makeup game, 8-1. C. J. Blevins gave up six hits, struck out seven and walked one to beat the Braves on their own turf. Wayne scored five runs in the opening inning off of starter and loser John Brooks who was yanked in the sixth for a reliever. Teasdale led Wayne's eight-hit assault on the Braves as he collected three hits - all singles - drove home two runs and also scored three times. Joe West came through with a pair of singles and two RBIs. Allen Park broke a 3-all tie with two runs in the top of the sixth to spoil Wayne and Leverenz's debut in the White Division. Wayne tied the score at three in the bottom of the third with one-away thanks to Townsend's single, and an error that put Leverenz aboard. With base runners on first and second, Czyzak's doubled sending Townsend and Leverenz home.

team has established a 10-run advantage after five complete innings. "Our kids went out there and just about hit everything that they threw at them," said Romulus coach Don Foley. "But I hope no one gets the idea that we were trying to embarrass anyone. We weren't stealing bases or anything like that. The game just went that way." After putting up 10 runs in the opening inning, the Eagles came back and scored once in their second, erupted for five more in the third and exploded for nine runs which apparently convinced the ump that that was enough. Jeremy Stevens, who scattered six Highland Park hits, struck out nine Parkers, and allowed only one earned run, was the winning pitcher. The Eagles pounded out 11 hits against three Highland Park throwers. Dennis Forystek collected two of those 11, including a triple and two runs batted in. Teammate Aaron Brohl scored three times after getting aboard on a pair of singles, a walk, and he also was awarded first after being struck twice with wild pitches. One of Brohl's hits was a triple down the left field line. Steve Justice chipped in with a double and a single and a pair of RBIs. This week may decide whether Foley's lineup is made of the right stuff. The Eagles will meet pre-season title favorite, also a former Red Division affiliate, Fordson, on Friday. Romulus also was scheduled to play a doubleheader yesterday at home against River Rouge. They hosted Dearborn Heights Crestwood on Monday. Both teams have designs on the Gold Division title this season.

lieves the team has the right chemistry and will be a factor in the race for the Mega Conference, Blue Division championship. "Right now we have a lot of new members and whenever you have that it takes time for them to jell as a team," the Romulus coach pointed out.

Westland Police Department granted $41,000 to hire cop

Westland has been awarded a community policing grant from the Michigan Department of Treasury for $41,000, according to State Representative Eileen DeHart, D-Westland.

"I was pleased to have voted for the community policing legislation when we passed it in the House of Representatives last year," she said. "Community policing is an effective crime fighting tool that puts additional officers on the streets protecting our families and neighborhoods."

With partisan flair -- it's an election year -- she said that House Democrats pushed through the plan last year to hire up to 5,000 new police officers in Michigan communities.

Westland will use its the grant to hire additional officers, she said.

Under the program, the state provides 20.5 percent of the funding, Westland is on the hook for 4.5 percent, and the rest comes from Uncle Sam. In 1994, Congress appropriated $8.8 billion to hire 100,000 cops. Michigan put up $10 million in matching funds.

"In Michigan we have been able to hire more than 1,500 new officers," DeHart said. "More than half the police agencies in the state participated in the program."

Ameritech found in violation of Michigan law

The Michigan Public Service Commissions (MPSC) has ruled that Ameritech has once again violated Michigan law by failing to report a $1.7 million transfer of assets to its cable television affiliate, Ameritech New Media. Ameritech was ordered to pay reasonable attorney fees and expenses and to cease and desist from further violations.

In recognizing Ameritech violated Michigan law, the Commission stated, "Incumbent providers of basic local exchange service [Ameritech] have a dominant position in local markets and considerable resources at their disposal. As a result, they are in a position to use these advantages, not only to gain entry into unregulated markets, but also to undermine competition once they gain entry."

Only three months ago, the MPSC also ruled that Ameritech violated the Michigan Telecommunications Act (MTA) with its ill-conceived marketing scheme, "Ameri-checks." This violation also involved Ameritech's cable television venture, Ameritech New Media.

The MTA gives the MPSC the ability to act as a "watch-dog" and review Ameritech's against illegal cross subsidization of non-regulated ventures.

Simply stated, it is designed to prohibit Ameritech from using its monopoly profits from a customer's home telephone bill in Lansing to build a cable system in Detroit. Because Ameritech failed to report this transfer of assets, the MPSC was not able to conduct a proper investigation of this transfer.

The original complaint in this case was filed in August by the Michigan Cable Telecommunications Association (MCTA) and Comcast Cablevision. While the transfer of funds took place on August 31, 1995, it wasn't discovered until nearly two years later when it was disclosed in connection with a different MPSC investigation of Ameritech. In that case, Ameritech also found to be in violation of the Michigan Telecommunications Act for illegally marketing its "Ameri-checks."

"Once again Ameritech broke the law and they got caught. If there were a three strikes law for violations of the MTA, Ameritech would have been sent up the river a long time ago," stated Colleen McNamara, MCTA Executive Director.

"I'm very disappointed that the proposed $1.7 million fine was not imposed. It's obvious Ameritech is not willing to act ethically on their own. Ameritech needs some type of penalty to deter them from turning around and doing this again tomorrow."

Holiday Tip #7: Cinnamon Ornaments
These unusual homemade ornaments or gift tags look and smell great.
1 cup applesauce
1 cup ground cinnamon or mixture of ground spices

Heat oven to 200°. Mix applesauce and cinnamon. Roll on surface sprinkled lightly with cinnamon until 1/4 inch thick (do not roll thinner or dough may curl as it dries). Cut with cookie cutters. Use end of drinking straw to cut hole to hang as ornament (or insert small paper clip into end of ornament so ornament can be hung from rounded tip of paper clip). Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake 2 hours, turning after one hour. (Instead of being baked, ornaments can stand about 4 days to dry; turn them over every day). About 2 dozen 2-inch ornaments.

To hang as ornaments, tie ribbons or cord through hole or end of paper clip. To use as gift tags, write names on ornaments with felt-tip markers or silver or gold paint.

The historic home of Gerald and Roberta Cullin, constructed by Belleville pioneers Robert Patterson and Violet Sophia Clark, circa 1851 will hold a Victorian reception and tour Saturday, May 16 from noon-4 p.m. The event coincides with the Clark family exhibit now showing at the Belleville Area Historical Museum.

Clark family exhibit to open at the Belleville Area Historical Museum

By DON RICHTER
MCN Special Writer

The Clark family, early settlers of this community, are back home where they belong, in Belleville.

The family, which came to this area in 1838, helped plan the village of Belleville, start the Bank of Belleville, construct both the Masonic Lodge and the Van Buren Town Hall and were instrumental in founding two area Episcopal churches, Grace and Trinity. They owned mills, founded Hillside Cemetery and served in Van Buren and Belleville government. They were also very involved in education with several of them teaching in Belleville schools and at the Michigan State Normal School in Ypsilanti, now better known as Eastern Michigan University. The Clarks left their mark, as well, upon our local landscape, building several lovely family homes which still stand today.

"Telling the story of the Clark family, is like telling the story of this community," said Diane Wilson, Historical Society Director.

Although the Clarks made a tremendous impact on this area, few members of the Clark family remained in the area.

Until one day last winter when a man walked into the historical museum and told Wilson that he was a descendant of the Clark family. Keith Zook was his name and his mother, who had become the recipient of a great deal of Clark family memorabilia, was in ill health and was considering what should happen to her family heirlooms.

"He and I talked for a long time that day about the possibilities of the artifacts coming to our museum," said Wilson. Shortly before her death, the mother made the decision to donate her family memorabilia to the Belleville Area Museum.

Then over the course of this past year, Zook has made several trips from his home in Grosse Ile to Belleville, bringing the museum the artifacts which, said Wilson, "we have come to call the Clark Collection."

These items, some from as early as the 1850's, "are an integral, irreplaceable part of our community's early-day history. These artifacts had been stored for years out in Utica and now, after a long journey, they are back home," Wilson said.

Some of the memorabilia on display at the exhibit will be: an 1874 wedding dress worn by Clara Babcock Clark, a 1907 wedding dress of Frances Clark Shook, Victorian-era hats and hatboxes, 1895 Paper dolls, advertisements from early Belleville businesses and much more.

Coinciding with the Clark exhibit will be a Victorian reception and tour of the historic home of Gerald and Roberta Cullin. The home was constructed in 1851 by Robert Patterson and Violet Sophia Clark. "The people will get to see one of the earliest homes in this area," said Wilson. "It's a beautiful home that isn't generally open to the public. Many people have commented that they have driven by it and always wondered what it looked like inside. Now's their chance to see."

The home tour will be on Saturday, May 16 from noon-4p.m. The house is at 42560 East Huron Drive. Tickets are available now at the historical museum and on the day of the tour at the house. The tickets cost $6 and entitle you to a tour of the home and to view the Clark exhibit, which opens May 15. If you happen to be a historical society member, tickets cost $4.

For further information, call the museum at 697-1944.

New recycling program protects environment at Metro Airport

EQ- The Environmental Quality Company announced today that it has signed a three year contract with Wayne County to recycle spent aircraft deicing fluids generated at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport. Wayne County will receive $50,000 for granting EQ the right to collect, recycle and remarket all deicing fluids generated during the life of the contract, which was unanimously approved last week by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

"This agreement is a mutually beneficial partnership between Wayne County and a local company with more than 40 years of experience in the environmental field," stressed EQ President David Lusk. "The new deicer recovery program supports the county's efforts to keep thousands of gallons of spent deicing fluid out of the environment, while also providing tangible financial benefits for the county."

Lusk explained that spent deicing fluid from Detroit Metropolitan Airport will be collected by the EQ Site Services Division and trucked approximately three miles to Michigan Recovery Systems, Inc. (MRSI) in Romulus, Michigan. MRSI is an EQ affiliated company that uses a state-of-the-art vacuum distillation system to recycle the spent material into a 99+% crystal clear propylene glycol product. Hundreds of thousands of gallons of the recycled products have already been sold for use in the manufacture of a variety of products, including paints and resins.

"This partnership offers Wayne County an opportunity to manage spent deicing fluids in a cost-effective and environmentally-friendly manner," stressed Robert Bran, Wayne County's director of airports. "We've been researching better ways to manage our spent deicing fluids for the past several seasons and we're confident that this option is best for the county, its residents and Detroit Metropolitan Airport."

MRSI and EQ are also working to construct an on-site recycling facility for aircraft deicing fluids at the Salt Lake City (Utah) International Airport. That system, which will process approximately 1.25 million gallons of spent deicing fluid each year, is expected to come on-line in late 1998.

In addition to Michigan Recovery, EQ operates a state-of-the-art hazardous waste management facility near Belleville, Michigan that provides a comprehensive line of environmental services. The Belleville site includes the EQ Michigan Disposal Waste Treatment Plant and the Wayne Disposal Hazardous Waste Landfill.

Big Brothers Big Sisters search for adult volunteers to help kids

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metropolitan Detroit is looking for adult men and women to volunteer as Big Brothers or Big Sisters in the Downriver Detroit areas. This shortage of volunteers is crucial to meet the needs of young boys and girls who are waiting to be matched on a one-to-one basis with an adult mentor.

Mentoring a young boy or girl is a proven method of building positive self-esteem while helping to prevent problems such as dropping out of school, gang participation and involvement in drugs and/or alcohol.

An adult mentor should be willing to undergo a screening process and volunteer a few hours each week to meet with a Little Sister or Little Brother over a six month to one year time period.

There are currently over 30 active mentoring matches in the Downriver Detroit area with Big Brothers or Big Sisters.

Volunteers often help with homework, attend community events or just spend time as a friend with their Little Brother or Little Sister.

For further information on volunteering as a Big Brother or Big Sister, please contact Renee Kish, Big Brothers Big Sisters Area Director for Western Wayne County, at (313) 274-7833 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Entrepreneur ranks Express "Best of the Best"

Express Personnel Services was recently ranked the Best of the Best Temporary Staffing Services nationwide, according to Entrepreneur magazine's 1998 Best of the Best rankings.

"To be a part of one of the best staffing organizations in the country is a success shared by all Express franchises," said John P. Bower, CPA, CPC, Regional Developer. "It also reaffirms our dedication to providing quality services to our associates and clients around the world."

The Best of the Best rankings are chosen from Entrepreneur's annual Franchise 500 listing and are intended to offer the "cream of the crop" in several business categories.

Express was listed along with franchise organizations like McDonald's, Mailboxes

Etc., and General Nutrition Centers (GNC).

"Entrepreneur's recognition of our quality temporary staffing services attests to the high quality of all our staffing solutions," said Robert A. Funk, Express founder and chairman. "We're committed to assisting businesses with a variety of human resource needs and to making Express the number one staffing firm in the world."

"The Troy Express office began operation in 1989. Since then we have added seven additional offices for a total of seven offices in Metro Detroit and one in Grand Rapids.

Current plans are to open two more offices in Metro Detroit in the summer of 1998. All of the Express Personnel Services offices offer temporary and full-time employees in a variety of fields, including office, clerical, skilled labor, light industrial, accounting, human resources, sales, marketing and more," said Bower.

John P. Bower is the president of the Michigan Association of Personnel Services and a member of the National Association of Temporary and Staffing Services, the National Association of Personnel Services and the International Franchising Association.

Express Personnel Services, a full-time employment firm, provides temporary help, direct hire, professional search, facilities management, and professional employer services to companies worldwide.

Express employs 250,000 people internationally, supports nearly 400 offices and projects 1998 revenues at $1.1 billion, surpassing 1997.

House passes car tax refund

State Representative Eileen DeHart voted YES today as the House passed legislation that would refund $1.2 billion to Michigan auto insurance policy holders in 1998.

Rep. DeHart (D-Westland) was pleased that the legislation would, if approved by the Senate and signed by the Governor, put an average of $180 per car directly into the pockets of automobile owners and cap taxes at $6 for the next two years.

"This will prove to be the biggest and fairest tax cut for Michigan's citizens."

- Eileen DeHart

The House Democratic Car Tax Refund legislation came about as a result of a $2.5 billion surplus in the Michigan Catastrophic Claims Association (MCAA) fund. The fund is financed by mandatory fees—Car Taxes—paid by every auto owner on their insurance bills. The surplus has continued to grow despite insurance industry efforts to reduce—but not eliminate—the mandatory MCCA assessment.

"This will prove to be the biggest and fairest tax cut for Michigan's citizens. The rich will not get more than my friends working every day to make a living and raise their families. This is the real 'pro-family' tax cut," DeHart said. "It puts real money in the pockets of ordinary people like you and me."

The legislation now heads to the Michigan Senate for consideration.

Jimmy offers new look inside and out for 1998

By KAREN STRONSKI
MCN Automotive Writer

There are several all new, totally redesigned vehicles for 1998. One of them is the Cadillac Seville, it arrives on a version of the Oldsmobile Aurora platform, which is also used by the Riviera and Park Avenue. The car will be used to spearhead GM's drive to boost car sales in Europe. The StabiliTrak stability enhancement system will be available on all front-wheel drive Cadillacs. The system applies one of the front brakes to help control the cars yaw rate and prevent a skid or spin out.

The soft-top version of the fifth generation Corvette is finally on sale, which is odd since it was developed before the coupe version, which has been on sale since July. All the Cavalier convertibles will be Z24 models instead of LS models, so they will come with a 150 horsepower 2.4 liter twin-cam engine standard. The base Cavalier's 2.2 liter engine is tweaked to produce five more pound-feet of torque.

The Camaro gets a face lift. It shows a new grin with its front end. The hood and the fenders are new designs, and you can order the fancy bodywork of the SS hotrod model on a standard Z28. The engine available on the new Camaro is a version of the Corvette's aluminum LSI V8 making either 305 or 320 horsepower. The Prism sedan loses its Geo badge and is all new, it gets more horsepower and is lighter. The Lumina fourdoor and the Monte Carlo get stiffer front shockabsorbervalving.

Chevy Blazer gets a new instrument panel and grill, the Venture minivan now has a driver's side rear sliding door available on short wheelbase models, and side airbags. The Malibu, the S10, and Tracker are all carried over from last year with no major changes.

The Chrysler Concorde and the Dodge Intrepid are restyled in an aggressive round shape and maintain their cab forward profile and impressive interior packaging. They are powered by either a DOHC 2.7 liter V6 or a SOHC 3.2 liter V6 both with more power and better fuel economy. The new Durango sport-ute, based on the mama-bear-sized Dakota pickup, will arrive this fall, it's wheelbase is 10 inches longer than the Jeep Grand Cherokee's and it's designed to hold up to eight passengers, more than most minivans. It will get the 5.9 liter V8 of the Cherokee but with five more horsepower.

The Ford Contour SVT sports sedan is now on sale with a 195 horsepower 2.5 liter V6 that is up 25hp from the standard Contour. Mustang GT gets a 10 hp increase to 225 and there's not going to be a new Probe until 1999. The Escort ZX2 was introduced last May as a

1998 Ford Escort ZX2

1998, and it comes standard with the 130 hp 2.0 liter twin-cam 4 cylinder instead of the standard Escort's 110 hp 2.0 liter. Crown Victoria gets a major facelift later in the '98 model year. An all new F350 joins the F-series later in the year. The Explorer sport-ute has more precise steering from '98. Ranger compact pickup is redesigned, with a stronger frame. It also gets the Explorer's rack-and-pinion steering. The regular cab models offer more interior room, the dash panel is redesigned, and the five-speed automatic transmission from the Explorer is added to the Ranger. And the Probe and Thunderbird are dead!

GMC has something good going, the big four-wheelers Yukon and Suburban get a new standard four-wheel drive system. The Jimmy and the Sonoma composite headlights and a larger grill opening, so you can tell them apart from their Chevy cousins more easily. Big red GMC logos replace the old fashioned GMC Truck logos on the tailgates. The Sierra can be optioned to run on either gas or compressed natural gas. The Safari and Savana are mostly unchanged.

The four cylinder G20 by Infiniti has returned with a longer wheelbase and a larger interior. The styling is evolutionary. A cell phone and GPS-based communication system is added to the Q45 and I30. The QX4 sport-ute carries over and the J30 ceases production.

Jeep Grand Cherokee gets an even bigger V-8, a 5.9 liter rated at 245 hp. The four-speed automatic transmission is beefier. The interior is also redesigned.

Body styling on the Lincoln Continental is rounded from and rear so that the corners don't protrude as far. The windshield was laid back a bit, and the hood and grill are all new. The trunk is larger but the interiors is slightly smaller. The restyled '98 Town Car is 3.6 inches shorter than the '97, and it comes with a new rear suspension and a little more power.

Pontiac worked wonders with it's new Firebird, it got a whole new facelift for '98. It also gets a new engine. An all aluminum 5.7 liter LS1 V-8, similar to the Vette's powerplant. The WS6 Ram Air package is available on the new motor, raising output to 320 hp. The new Firebird is built on last years platform, but it has new gas-charged shocks, so it rides and handles better. The front and rear styling is less bulky looking, and over-all is 2.2 inches shorter than the '97.

The supercharged 240 hp Grand Prix now has traction control, and the base Sunfire 2.2 liter 4 cylinder gets a boost.
